

AUTHORS P R E S S

AUTHORSPRESS is a publishing venture with the missionary zeal to translate the dream of budding as well as established authors to get published. In the process it not only seeks to enrich the treasure house of those who covet academically sound work, but also actualize the authors potential to take centre stage in national and international academic circles. We seek to publish both new and established authors who are keen to extend the scope of their work beyond the traditional restrictions of genre.

Our continuous endeavour is to bring forth ideas which help people in their efforts towards leading better, happier and more equitable lives. As a result we attempt to redefine the role of the publisher in the academic world as an agent of progress committed to publish books that educate, inspire, empower and awaken. We constantly strive to push the envelope in terms of ideas, concepts and analysis, and our works differentiate themselves significantly from the mainstream voice such a commitment.

During these years of its continuous drive towards excellence, Authorpress has progressed at a rate which is unparalleled in the world of scholarly publishing. Not only have our titles been reviewed well by respected names in academic circles, they have also been endorsed by university course lists and advocacy organizations.
